Hi Karen,

When I spoke with Allison at NOAA, she mentioned that the IT folks have been busy posting the comments but that it is taking some time. I suspect you are not missing anything. I cc'ed Allison so she can elaborate and possibly give you a timeframe as to when all the comments will be posted on the website.

Cheers,

Jayne

Jayne – when I look on the NOAA website, I only see 43 of the comments posted but I thought you said they were all available. Am I doing something wrong, or are they still working on the others?
